How we use cookies

This website uses "cookies". Cookies enable us to provide dynamic content and information and tell us which parts of our websites people have visited.

If you want to disable cookies then you can do so via your web browser. The process depends entirely on which web browser you are using although it is not difficult to do. Because cookies are used throughout our website, disabling them may prevent you from using certain parts of the site.

The cookies used on our websites have been categorised based on the guidelines found in the ICC UK Cookie guide. We use the following categories on our website:

Category 2 — Performance Cookies

This type of cookies is considered as a 'First Party Cookie'. The cookies used on this website do not store any personal information such as name, telephone number or address.

For further information about cookies and how to manage them visit www.allaboutcookies.org.

You can choose to accept or decline cookies. Most web browsers automatically accept cookies, but you can usually modify your browser setting to decline cookies if you prefer. This may prevent you from taking full advantage of the website.
