What is Fatigue?

Fatigue is a term used to describe an overall feeling of tiredness or a lack of energy.

If you have any of the following symptoms you may be suffering from fatigue:

- Increased tiredness, low energy and an increased need to rest which is not related to any recent activity
- General weakness
- Reduced concentration
- Poor motivation or loss of interest in usual activities
- Changes in sleep pattern
- Feeling overwhelmed when facing certain activities
- Easily upset
- Difficulty completing daily tasks
- Forgetfulness.

How can the Fatigue Course help me?

The Fatigue Course aims to increase your awareness and understanding about the causes and effects of fatigue.

The sessions will give you information, advice and support about managing fatigue. The Fatigue Course will also give you ideas of how to manage fatigue in your daily life.

Who runs the Fatigue Course?

The Macmillan Occupational Therapist, Physiotherapist and Dietitian organise and run the Fatigue Course.

What happens in the Fatigue Course?

The following topics will be covered:

Session 1 - understanding fatigue.

Session 2 - coping plans (pacing, planning and prioritising).

Session 3 – physical activity and healthy eating.

Session 4 - managing emotions and wellbeing.

The sessions are held in groups either face to face or virtual so you will be able to share your experiences with other people.

What have people said about attending the Fatigue Course?

“I enjoyed the course and meeting the other people who are going through similar stages as myself”.

“I found it very interesting; lots of things I had not thought about before, I found it very helpful”.

“Combating fatigue is about not worrying about it too much”.

“It’s good to know others experience fatigue and that my fatigue is not imagined. I would recommend anyone in a similar position to take part”.

“I found daily activity planning and prioritising very useful”.

“The information about the psychological and physical effects of fatigue was informative and very enlightening”.

“The relaxation exercises were really good, and I use this all the time now”.
